

I am writing regarding the vital necessity of NOT have a monopoly in media ownership. For a democracy, it is urgent that the public have an opportunity to hear diverse viewpoints. If the media outlets are all owned by a few corporations, this diversity will be lost.